El Tarter / Canillo

In Andorra, at the foot of the Grandvalira slopes - the largest ski resort in the Pyrenees and in a setting surrounded by nature, is Arbres de El Tarter, by Residencial Altavista. An exclusive new development with 49 homes built with the most modern technologies and equipped with maximum comfort to enjoy the beauty and magic of the Andorran mountains.

Arbres de El Tarter was created to provide quality of life to its occupants as it has a privileged location, a luxurious design in keeping with the surroundings, a spa, gym and jacuzzi of more than 450 m² and a landscaped interior patio of more than 200 m².

The homes, of different sizes (between 53 and 413 m²), have a spacious living-dining room with fireplace, open kitchen equipped with the latest technological innovations and high quality, terrace and private parking spaces with the pre-installation for recharging electric vehicles. The building will also have a concierge service for greater security and attention to residents.

In addition, Arbres de El Tarter is distinguished by its efficient, sophisticated and elegant finishes. In this sense, it is worth highlighting the radiant floor heated and air-conditioned by a heating network outside the building and with individual regulation in each room. Other unique elements worth highlighting are the programmable home automation system and the high-end fireplace. These features make the difference in Arbres de El Tarter, a building that does not leave you indifferent.
