Terramar / Sitges

Magnificent Villa for sale in one of the most in-demand areas of all of Sitges Terramar, equipped with several bus stops and with the comfort of being in a very quiet area and two minutes from the beach, this sector has a unique location, close to schools and services.

We enter the property that has access from two streets and we have the main entrance that can be accessed on foot or by car and in this area there is a large parking lot separate from the box house, for two large cars. We enter the house and find a large living room with a fireplace with access to the garden and a very bright dining room, all integrated into the same room, with large English-style windows. In this same area there is the large kitchen with lots of light. In one of the wings, immediately after the living room, there is an access door at the same level where there are two large bedrooms, one that opens directly to the front porch of the house where you can also access from the dining room, a full bathroom and the water area. and iron.

From the living room, dining room and from one of the bedrooms you can access the very large garden area, with trees and facing south under cover, to be able to enjoy the summer and winter days.

We go up to the night area where the three spacious bedrooms are, two of them with a full bathroom and dressing room, all three give access to the large terrace on the first floor where you can see the garden and the privacy of the plot, it is a property very comfortable and spacious to live in, be sure to visit it.
